

Wednesday 6 March, 9:00am–4:00pm
Atrium, Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham

Healthcare Science Day @UHB

Interactive exhibits to reveal the vital, behind-the-scenes roles of Hospital Scientists, including:

- Simulation critical care bed with Medical Engineers
- Phlebotomy demonstrations
- Laser scanning and 3D printed body parts
- Multiple Clinical Physiology demonstrations
- Interactive Clinical Laboratory exhibits
- Medical Physics displays
- Extract DNA
- NHS Careers advice

Healthcare Science Week and British Science Week
8–17 March, 2019

Healthcare Science Day @UHB 2019

Key

Interactive stands

Information Desk

Disabled Toilets

Toilets

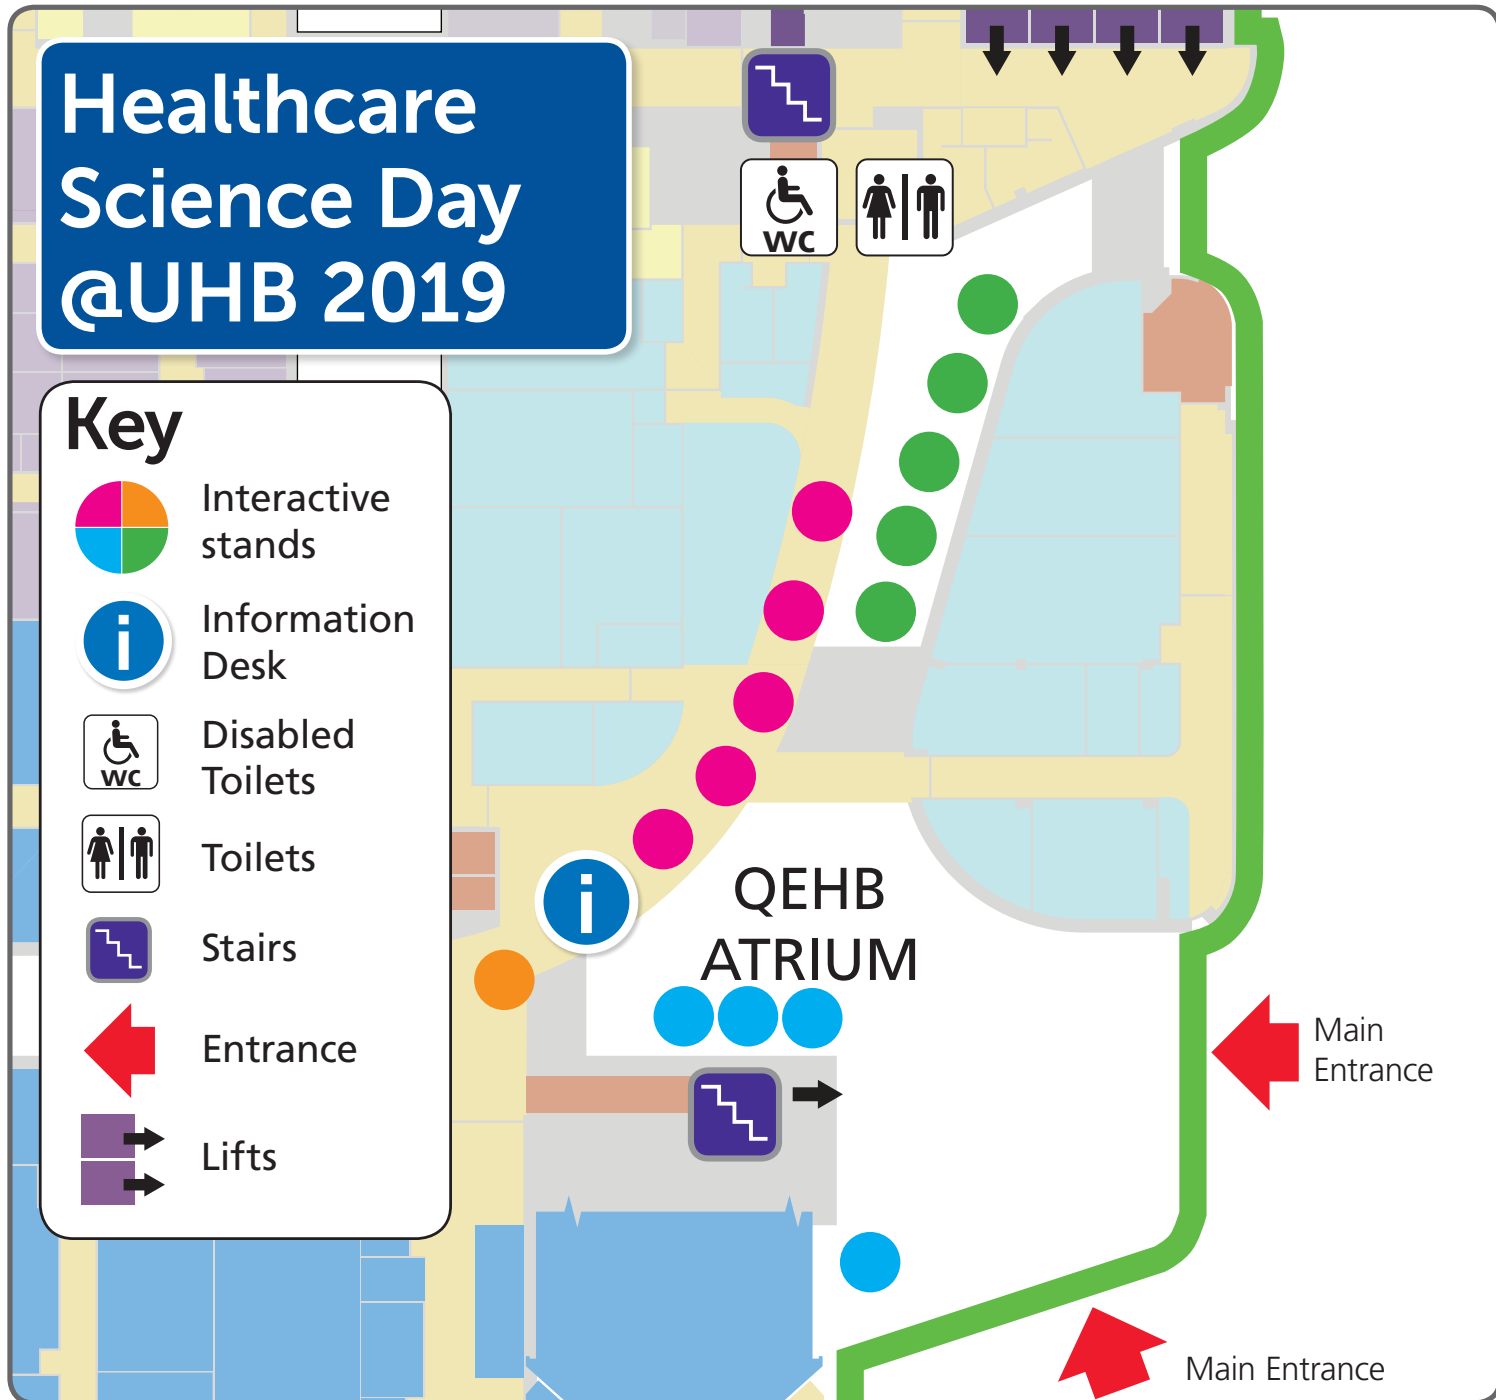

Stairs

Entrance

Lifts

Department

Ground

Medical Physics

Maxillofacial Reconstruction Scientist

NIHR Medtech and in vitro Diagnostics Cop-operative (MIC)

Medical Engineers, Renal Technicians

Department

Ground

Clinical Laboratories – Clinical Immunology

Regional Genetics Laboratory

Molecular Pathology

Biomedical Scientists

Phlebotomy

Department

Ground

Integrated Clinical Academic Office

Health Care Science Careers

Department/Speciality

Balcony

Respiratory Physiology

Neurophysiology

Vascular Science

Cardiology

Audiology

Please feedback on the event using the following link: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/LMT2LMP>
For further information please email: HealthcareScience@uhb.nhs.uk